

BETTINA OBERLI - Director

Bettina Oberli was born in 1972 in Interlaken. From 1995 to 2000 she studied film at the University of Arts. For her Diploma film she was awarded the Young Talent Prize by Suissimage. After a few years of work in New York among others with the director Steve Buscemi for Lou Reed and Hal Hartley for the feature film "Henry Fool" Bettina returned to Switzerland. After her award winning film „im Nordwind“ she realised the film „Die Herbstzeitlosen“ in 2006, one of the most successful films ever made in Switzerland. „Tannöd“ from the year 2009 was also a great success in German and Swiss cinemas.

At the moment Bettina is developing a project in Germany in collaboration with well known director Faith Akin. Bettina lives in Zurich with her husband and two sons.
